Heaven operates with a strict policy for the safety of both customers and staff.

Heaven does not operate without any door supervision being onsite.

Typically there will be 2 doormen whilst Heaven is open. Also during busier times, i.e Racing season, there will be an increase to the door staff onsite for added security, all Door Staff are SIA Approved.

The door security team are present within Heaven at any given time, and also outside Heaven to greet customers to explain the house rules.

There is a management structure in place also to deal with various queries help or advice.

The management structure is as follows:

General Manager, Floor Manager (the person responsible for looking after the dancers), Bar Manager and general bar staff.

When the customers leave the building they are asked to leave in a quiet manner as to not disturb the local residents within the area.

Please see the attached photo for the external appearance.

Apart from the sign above the main entrance for heaven, all external signage is very small.

Neither the sign above the entrance to Heaven or the 2 small A5 signs on the right hand side of the entrance steps have any nudity displayed, just text offering the name of the venue and the opening times.
