WS2	10-Jul-14	Customer	Assistant Director & Portfolio Holders- Families & Communities	Maintain and promote our public image, maintain effective communications	Lack of public trust and confidence in the councils leads to a poor reputation. Councils need to champion their area and be a trusted part of the community. It is vital therefore in making sure people access services, which often means the handling of sensitive information, that the councils have a strong reputation. This is also the case in working with communities to deliver growth or large projects as well as in times of crisis, when the council must be a trusted source of information. Therefore Councils need a good reputation to enter positive partnerships with others, or secure funding. This could also potentially impact on our ability to recruit staff in competitive market.		C	1) Monitor and measure media coverage through daily media alerts and, where appropriate, provide a robust response.	Service Manager (Strategic Communications)	N/A	N/A
