Ward Councillor

1. Overview

- 1.1 As a Councillor, you will be expected to balance the needs and interests of the Council, your local area, your residents and voters, community groups, local businesses and your political party (if you belong to one).
- 1.2 First and foremost, you will represent your Ward, engaging with residents and groups on a wide range of different issues and taking on an important community leadership role. At the Council, you will contribute to the development of policies and strategies, including budget-setting. You may also be involved in taking decisions on planning or licensing applications.
- 1.3 In balancing the varying needs and interests of your residents, it is important that you are able to pro-actively engage with the work of the Council, and input the views of your communities to relevant committees.

2. Representing the local area

- 2.1 Represent effectively the interests of the Ward for which you were elected and deal with residents' enquiries and representations, fairly and without prejudice.
- 2.2 Champion the causes which best relate to the interests of the community and campaign for improvements in the quality of life of the community in terms of diversity, safety, well-being, economy and environment.
- 2.3 Use local knowledge in the development of Council policies, including listening to the needs of local people and taking their views into account when considering policy proposals and decision-making.
- 2.4 Ensure that local people are informed about:
 - Services in their area;
 - Decisions that affect them;
 - The reasons why decisions were taken by the Council;
 - Their rights as residents.
- 2.5 Represent the Authority to the community and the community to the Authority, through the various forums available.
- 2.6 When appropriate, respond to any Council consultation regarding matters within your Ward.
- 2.7 Know your Ward, and be aware of its particular qualities, advantages and challenges.
- 2.8 Develop effective working relationships with other local representatives, including other local Ward Members and the County Councillors, and representatives of local organisations, associations, interest groups and businesses
- 2.9 Encourage people in your Ward to participate in the democratic decision-making process by engaging with consultations etc.
- 2.10 Above all, you are a leader in your community. You act as an important link between the Council and your community, and you need to ensure you keep both your Council, and your community, informed of the work that each other is doing. That may mean reporting to Parish/Town Councils, Community Groups and Residents Associations, and reporting back from their meetings to appropriate forums.

3 Participating in the work of the Council

- 3.1 Participate effectively at all meetings of Council and at Committees, Groups or other Forums to which you are appointed.
- 3.2 Contribute actively to the formation and scrutiny of the Council's priorities, budget, strategies and service delivery.
- 3.3 Develop and maintain a working knowledge of the Council's services, management arrangements, powers/duties and constraints and develop good working relationships with the Council's Officers.
- 3.4 Fulfil the statutory and locally determined requirements of an elected Member, including compliance with all relevant codes of conduct and protocols.
- 3.5 Represent the Council on outside bodies to which it appoints you, ensuring that relevant Officers and Members in the Council are made aware of the work of the outside body and any matters arising from their meetings.
- 3.6 Support the Chair in promoting the civic life of the Council.
- 3.7 Participate in the scrutiny of the services and policies of the Council and their effectiveness in meeting the strategic objectives of the Council and the needs of its residents.
- 3.8 Engage with the Member Development Programme, ensuring you have the skills you need to discharge your role effectively and comply with any compulsory training requirements. Ensure you have sufficient IT skills to enable you to make use of the relevant Council systems.
