

EVERYMAN

Once Upon a Time in North London...

Our original offering: the cuddly independent. Born in Hampstead in 2009, Everyman began redefining what cinema meant to our local audience in some historic venues you may know as the Everyman Hampstead and Screen on the Green

The Iconic Everyman Screen on the Green in Islington, London, now 106 years old

Our Customers

+35 venues

+3.5m customers FY 2019

+8 more new venues to come in the next 2-3 years with continued growth thereafter

+340,000 members and subscribers

We tend to go into high streets and town centres; this is our beautiful venue in Bristol

Respectively giving historic buildings a new lease of life as well as creating dynamic shopfronts in new developments.

With as much care, and attention to detail we create beautifully warm and inviting bar interiors

Alongside comfortable, luxurious and unique screens. A home away from home cinema experience

Thank you